Customer Reviews

Students of many levels enjoy this book right away with "Lean On Me," the first song. It is arranged well, so people learn it quickly and it sounds great. Other songs in the book are also good, but require more work from beginners. Most people enjoy at least half the songs in the book and are more motivated to practice these songs than regular lesson book material. Adult beginners also like this book.

My students enjoy this book. It has a decent variety of songs but i'm not sure why some of the songs are included in a children's book (She Loves You etc.) It's pretty good quality as far as the arrangements go, but Faber books do tend to over simplify and lose some of the integrity of the songs. I often modify them to better serve my students. But is probably the best currently on the market.

I bought this for one of my piano students. Usually I have the parents buy the books, but this one didn't have an account and we couldn't find this in the nearby music stores. Anyway, I always buy the popular books for each level, and the students always enjoy them. Fun songs.

Buyer Beware. I thought I was purchasing the edition with "Thinking Out Loud," as advertised, and was sent the 2010 edition! This was terrible timing with my child's recital coming up. Not happy at all, especially after the hefty shipping charges.

My daughter needed a little encouragement to keep practicing piano, and her teacher recommended this book for her- popular songs that she can learn (and play along with on iTunes). Great incentive.

The pop standards in the book are a bit hard! My favourite from the book is "We're All In This Together," a fast rock song from High School Musical.

My son love to play these songs. I used to have to constantly remind him to practice piano but with these books, he goes to the piano by himself.

This book is a fantastic supplement to the Level 2B lesson books. I am a music teacher and find the books has lots of songs that the kids love.
