Vintage Notions Coloring Book: Fashion Therapy

Synopsis

FASHION THERAPYââFrom dresses to hats and stylish accessoriesââgorgeous art is waiting to be brought to life through your artistry. A coloring book filled with more than 150 beautiful Downton-Abbey-era illustrations from The Womanâs Institute of Domestic Arts and Sciences, which was founded in 1916 by Mary Brooks Picken. The light shading of the illustrations has been retained to add depth to the coloring. Try experimenting with pens, pencils, and metallic gel pens to enhance some details of the design. They make the beading shimmer and the jewelry sparkle! Inspirational messages have been added to the back of each fashion page from The Womanâs Institute publications as well as sage fashion advice suitable for framing. 108 pages to color with full color cover & back.

Customer Reviews

I was excited to get this book, however, it wasn't what I was hoping for. yes, there are a lot of pages, but the drawings are pretty much the same. Grayscale illustrations on not the best paper. Some have a bit of background, but most are just a figure in a not too exciting dress. Bla. I am returning.

It's like playing with paper dolls again! Lovely reproductions of early 1920's + fashion and decor. Be as creative as you want. Great fun on a lazy day!

absolutely wonderful to color would like more of this kind i have the two she made
