5 stars because my boy Ringo has been selected at the 2016 Valentine's Day cat! In early spring 2015 someone sent me something on Facebook for the chance to have your cat in a calendar. I thought nothing of it and submitted a photo. Then out of the blue in the fall I received a box with a congratulatory letter and a calendar. Now I want to spread the cheer with my family for Christmas and send them this calendar too!

As a cat lover, I buy this calendar every year and usually love it. The pictures are submitted by cat owners and are pretty darn cute. I only gave it 4 stars this year because the glued edge is really funky and rough which makes it difficult tearing the pages off. OK, I'm probably being petty but it's just annoying and has never happened on past calendars.

The original Cat a Day book. I have been buying 4 of them a year for at least 5 years now for my mother and Aunts. Page a Day format is great for helping them keep track of the date and day of the week. Have seen the competitive calendars but still prefer this one.

I give one of these to my mother every year. I have done since they were in black-and-white, maybe 1980 or so. One year I bought a different brand and Mom wasn't happy. So this is the one - cute kitties in color. Buy it for your Ma!

I bought it last year, and bought again this year. If you like domestic cats, this is a good color one page a day (6 per week) calendar. It comes with online registration so you can get an email daily with the same photo as in the calendar.

Is there any better way to start the day than with a cup of coffee while looking at a picture of a beautiful feline? I think not - unless it's staring into the golden eyes of one's own little furry darlings.....

Perfect cat calendar for myself and to give as gifts. I love the information supplied on the calendar and being able to view other people's cats. The calendar is done perfect and with great color too.

I have purchased these calendars in previous years. The variety of cats is amazing and the written captions below each give info on the cat and cat pointers. This is a must have for all cat lovers (like me).
