Customer Reviews

The selections in this book are nice, although not quite what I was looking for for my intermediate high school flutists. There seems to be a sizable gap between the easiest pieces in the book (Bach Menuettos) and the more difficult pieces (Koepke Villanella). What I wanted more of were pieces that offered opportunities for expression with a few technical passages, but this book seems to contain pieces that are EITHER technical OR expressive. It's a good book, but I will be looking for another book to fill in that gap.

This is a nice group of pieces. There is a pull-out section of the flute part, so each can practice and perform individually.

A beautiful collection of really nice flute pieces and nice practical accompaniments. A must for every Intermediate flute student. A+++
