Received it today! It has some awesome pics of Deadpool and well known Deadpool "friends". Just as an FYI, there is a Parental Advisory (Not for Kids) marker on the front page that does not show up on the picture posted. This is due to some violent images (guts, blood, etc.) and some scantily clad women in DP's life. I will try to post some pics later. Can't wait to get started!

Bought for 34y old hubs. He loves Deadpool. This was right up his alley. The pages are one sided making use of markers and other more liquid colorations possible. I recommend removing the page before coloring or using a substantial buffer page behind your project to protect the next page. The paper is good too! Quality, thick and good texture. Pencils are wonderful, but pens don't seem to exsanguinate into the fibers of the page. I would recommend this coloring book by Ed McGuinness and future iterations, based on these observations and my husband's experience. It's excellent!

This is one of my fav coloring books!! So much fun!!! The paper is kinda thin but since it's single page design, I'm able to use coloring pencil, pastel pencils, and even markers!!! I will recommend all Marvel fans to get it!!!

Amazing! It's a good size book with covers from New Mutants 98, old school Pool, New Pool, the Daniel Way years, and Deadpool vs; Thanos, carnage, zombies, Cable, Spider-Man and more. It is an adult coloring book so, there are some small areas and graph scenes. Extremely pleased!

We love it, should have purchased more than one to avoid agreeing over who gets to color what! The quality is wonderful, it's really quite surprising after some recent duds with the "adult" coloring books. Nice and violent. Just the way we like our Deadpool ;)

This coloring book is great. It has several iconic Deadpool moments ranging from his first appearance all the way to recent events. There's obviously many missing, too, but it's a great selection of fun, engaging moments to color in. The pages are all high quality and easy to color in. It boasts a parental warning on the front cover, but nothing is too over the top as long as you know what to expect from Deadpool. Mostly some gore, but there are a few risqué pages of Shiklah and still nothing super bad. This is a great coloring book for any Deadpool fan, for sure. It's quite a lot of fun and has many pages full of action. All of the pages are easily removable if you're in to that sort of thing. The paper is plenty thick. I use colored pencils, personally, so I don't have any issues with colors bleeding through. If you were using markers, though, you would probably want to remove the pages prior to coloring for fear of it bleeding through, but I feel this is pretty common and not something to be held against the book. All in all, I give this one a high recommendation.

By far the best adult coloring book that I have seen to date. The pages are perforated near the spine so they can be removed from the book to make them easier to work on. The artwork is fantastic and fun. Love it!

Got this as a B-Day present and I adore it. I will say there's some pages that are going to take a lot of patience to finish. Most notably the wedding scene. Holy Chimichanga is that picture going to take patience! Patience, a sharp pencil, and a steady hand. But all the pictures are good quality and even those with smaller details in need of coloring look great so no worries.
