Customer Reviews

This was to replace the colored pencils my granddaughter generously gave to her little brother. She is very artistic and always drawing and coloring. This is a really good set of colored pencils for a child, but an adult artist might find them a little hard and not easy to blend.

These pencils have lead that requires significant pressure to get a good lay down of color, and they don't color very smoothly. Fine for a child who's just learning and will probably press harder while coloring, not great for an older kid or adult who wants softer lead.

I purchased these pencils to go along with my Secret Garden book. They were fine until it came time to sharpen them. I don't know if it's the cheap sharpener that was included, the wood quality, or both. But the wood is practically shredded when sharpened or if I sharpen the lead, it falls out. I'm on looking for better quality sharpener AND pencils!

Haven't had any trouble with breakage. Nice colors. Would purchase again if needed or for a gift. Plastic case is convenient.

I purchased these color pencils to go along with a coloring book that I purchased. They're awesome. They work well and the colors are rich! I like to color as a mindfulness activity. It calms me so I need to make sure that I had pencils that would look good and not break easily or not color well. Because that would defeat the purpose lol.

Wonderful quality, excellent color distribution. The variety of colors included allowed me to complete a piece that I was struggling with due to limited shades. Will buy again!

I bought them for my self, I love them. Very nice when I use them for coloring in my coloring book to unwind

These pencils are super smooth, and lay down pigment in a way that is similar enough to my Prismacolor Premiers that I am perfectly content to reach for them when I want saturated, artist-quality color.
