Insanely captivating erotic artbook from three fine artists, uncensored. Large print book little over 14" by 10". About 74-76 pages, unnumbered. The one I ordered is paperback but the dust cover is very sturdy and glossy. Interesting artwork underneath the dust cover too. Book caught my eye in a Kinokuniya sample but was censored (the actual book won't be censored). I'd recommend flipping through one if you live near a Japanese book retailer that supplies this before buying.Great artwork from all 3. Sorayama's artwork has a deep western feel to it while RJB's (Rockin Jelly Bean) artwork cultivates a graffiti/pastel style that lends itself to 70s-80s style artwork. I particularly dig Terra's (Terada) art style which has a strong doll-like resemblance. Sorayama's artworks are complete while a few select pieces are from Terra's notebook sketches in ink. Very impressive still for tearouts! Just look up Terra's public drawing on a Kinokuniya storefront. Not easy but he pulls it off!RJB's methodology also resonates with me as he commonly starts with pencil and then transfers to a digital format. He also has a few select works in uncolored and colored stages. Also noticed Terra's canvas drawings (lately, I've been painting oil on canvas) and although the texture of the canvas is conspicuous in those select pieces, it gives a grungy, endearing style. Noticing the beauty mark motif in Sorayama's artworks--- not my taste but interesting element. His art is also the most realistic of the three. At the end of the book are a few photos of their works displayed in a pan-exotica art gallery and the three artists posed together.Great artbook from three masters. Will look into future works from these fellows, particularly Terra.
