Customer Reviews

My daughter had me on a buying spree at B&N and since there was a great sale, I picked up a few books for her and my son. This was there, and although we both love our dog and really liked the book, we were overloaded at the time and had to keep this one on our plate for next time. We really liked the dog designs and they were fun and playful, really well done! I noticed it was a really well done book with quality pages and was very nice. Even though the pages were very good, I would still recommend using a safety sheet underneath, if you're going to be using markers. She uses mostly pencils and the sheets are excellent for that. This book is a WINNER!

Some of the pictures, like the cover picture were very good. However, some looked very cartoon-like with large Powerpuff girl eyes and other strange features that make the adult coloring book feel more like a highlight's magazine.

This is a perfect coloring book on several levels. 1. If you are a dog lover or enthusiast. 2. If you have artistic tendencies. 3. If you just like to color and make beautiful pictures. I could go on and on but I believe I made my point. This coloring book is well made with wonderful pictures and very nice paper. I would suggest if you decide to use markers, to put a protective sheet under your work in case it might bleed through. Colored pencils work really well with these pictures, too.

This dog coloring book has a few really great pages with tons of detail and then it has "less hard" pages that are easier to complete in a quick time period. The pages that are less detailed tend to have bolder lines too. Although there are a good bit of breeds represented in this book I would have preferred a few more. I really enjoy coloring in this book with markers as I found I get good vivid pictures so it is really nice to have the one sided pages. I do put some extra sheets of paper under the page I am working on just to make sure they don't bleed through but that hasn't happened yet.

This is cute and probably great for someone younger. Most of the dogs are very cartoonish and just sliced up with design. Trouble is the 'slicing up' is way off and not very precise. I was expecting something more precise and comprehensive, if that makes sense.

My 11 year old daughter was thrilled to find this in her stocking. She loves dogs as well as the "adult" coloring books. She enjoys coloring it with the Staedtler markers which typically don't bleed through the pages. The pages have enough details on it that she feels mature while coloring it.

I am 50 years old and I still love to color. When I saw this coloring book of dogs I knew that I had to buy it. I owned a dog boarding and grooming facility up until last November when I sold it. So I'm a little partial to dogs and had to have this to color. The pages are thick so the color does not bleed through to the next page. There is every breed of dog that you can think of in this book. This book is what I call "easy coloring". Not a lot of tiny little places to color, most are larger. Even though I love this coloring book, I think small kids would do really good with coloring these dogs. I will be coloring a few of these pages for some dog lovers in my family. And they will be receiving them for Christmas. They will be colored with neon gel pens then cut out. They will be glued to black poster board then put in a frame. I'm gonna make some family members happy this year!

Gave this to my 20 year old daughter for Christmas and she loved it. The designs are wonderful and the pictures are on the front of the page only so no worry if your markers bleed through.
