Customer Reviews

For those who like to color mandalas or mandala like designs, this book has a lot to offer. There are pages and pages of detailed mandalas overlapping each other or stand alone gorgeous in the middle of the page. There are very geometric type mandalas and very flowing flower like mandalas. All are very interesting to choose our own colors and mediums to bring out our one of a kind version. Four Star: Some colorists will not like the pages printed so light. Since I liked these designs so much, I removed the desired pages and personal use copied to darken and onto larger paper. I've purchased several of Vive Le Color coloring books and for my personal taste I liked how the Copic Sketch markers, 0.38mm Copic Multiliners, BIC Mark-It Ultra Fine Point, Staedtler Ultra Fine Point markers and some shading with Prismacolor colored pencils. The paper, though, is also very conducive to gel markers, with some bleed through. Particulars of this book:~ 72 designs~ The book is 7"x7" with pages that can either be removed by tearing from the top or can be left in the book.~ A handy thick cardboard pad is attached on the back of the book to use as a supportive pad while coloring.~ Quality of the paper is quite good, but some bleed through is to be expected with most alcohol markers.~ For that reason alone, I personal use copy and enlarged onto 80 lb. cover stock paper.~ Back side of each page is blank.~ Most of the 72 designs will require ultra-fine point pencils or marking pens.~ There are a few simple open designs that could be filled in with imaginative embellishments of our own. This is a very handy book to slip in the luggage, backpack, briefcase or purse for on-the-go creative moments. Very happy with this purchase.

Ah I love the thicker paper on this. I can even use watercolor. Gel pens and markers are great too. There's lots of fine lines but it's not hard to do and the patterns are so relaxing rather than worrying about shading this or making something look realistic I can just focus on what colors might look pretty together. I'm one of those people who likes these better than crosswords or sudoku for passing time or keeping my hands occupied when waiting. So relaxing and low pressure!

While I love mandalas and the viva collection I thought was such a cute idea and design. The glued easily tearable spine of the book is extremely delicate. I was coloring the very first page since receiving it and all but like 5 pages of the book separated completely from the front and back covers. So now I have two separate entities. The book cover. And then over here I have the pages. So had I intended on leaving them all in the book (which I did) that is now not a choice. The pages are coming unconnected from what's left of a spine which is just glue daily. And the pages are getting messed up Bc the font store as nicely as book that had covers. Anyway. I'm just disappointed that it fell apart. And on the first dang day. One plus is the paper. Unless you are incredibly heavy handed you can even color with markers without a bleed thru. The paper is great!!! And the designs are beautiful!!!

This has great mandala pictures in it.I have bought every Vive Le Color! coloring book to date. Even though the paper is still high quality, the printing is not. At least five pages in each (and I bought two of this book) were blank or so faded, they couldn't be colored. Not worth it to send it back but just wish companies would pay closer attention to quality.

Awesome coloring book and pencil set!
