Customer Reviews

I am disappointed. I thought by preview pages that melody and harmony were together on second line. Maybe for some sections of some songs, but not anything I can really play. Also, songs go over several pages and the book is too big for the music tray on my keyboard and it is very hard to keep the book open, let alone turn pages. I have to completely stop, turn the page, and re-adjust the clips I have holding it. I copied the one song I was really wanting, reducing it to fit a normal page and glued the pages together in one long sheet (5 pages). I only play for my own enjoyment, so I guess I will eventually learn to play it. I would really like to send it back, but I guess I will give it to my granddaughter who plays guitar.

I just wished the publishers would include a page that just has the lyrics and guitar chords to go with each song. Once the song is learned, it is just a matter of seeing the words and chords without having to turn so many pages. If someone picks up on this idea, please give me credit!

I wanted a worship book that my piano students can play for church or hymn competitions. Unfortunately, the songs are all accompaniments and the pianist does not play the melody. Would be great for a pianist playing in a group/or singing while they play but not for solos.

Bought for my wife and she loves it. The songs are easy enough to learn quickly and they are modern worship songs.

Great collections of contemporary hits, and very well put together for piano and guitar.

Wonderful songs and good quality book. Exactly what I was hoping for!

Wife likes it very much. Plays guitar and likes the music.
