Customer Reviews

A great collection of golden oldies. I would love to see .com publish a copy of the tables of contents of their songbooks so browsing customers can get a better idea of what they choose.

These Reader's Digest books have been an invaluable resource for me as a music educator, and now, in retirement, they keep on giving fun with old songs and great memories. I got this one because my group that sings in nursing homes has realized that it is time to add more post-1950 songs to our repertoire. A 77-year-old friend recently visited, and swore she knew every one of the songs in this one.

Another one of the great Reader's Digest series of songbooks. They are all great arrangements and easy to play for a level 4 player. There is everything to enjoy with any of these books.

if this book doesn't have a wonderful list of titles to the good old songs, i don't know where else I could find one!!! It's so good to see the music of my younger generation coming back

You can never go wrong with reader's digest songbooks. They have the chords above for piano & guitar. I love playing out of these books. What i love about reader's digest song books is that they don't duplicate their songs to any big extent. So you get lots of songs. I have at least 7 Reader's Digest songbooks & i play out of all of them. Love them. I pick, according to my mood or the person I'm playing for. They are high quality binding too.

So many of these songs (in fact just about all of them) are in my Songs of the 1950's Decade book and the Decade Book has better chord arrangements. I'm not sorry I bought the book, but it was somewhat disappointing - especially the way the music is arranged (written) - very simple, several inaccurate chord notations

I was looking for some great sheet music at a reasonable price and saw this as a used item on your site. It was advertised as being in very good condition and priced at almost half the price of the new books. It was in very good condition and had some great music I was looking for at a great price. Great buy!!!

My Mom saw this book on the piano in the common room of her assisted living facility. She was very excited to find it and asked me to see if I could get it for her. She enjoys it and pages through it singing various songs. Since she is losing her mental acuity, this song book means a lot to her.
