Who is the mysterious stranger known as James Alexander, who spends his time drawing the sounds of my soul? I may never know, but now i can finally put color to my inner "Ahole"! Don't be fooled by the cute little squirrel on the cover! This book is filled with pages and pages of swear words to color and laugh at in the privacy of your own home.. or to share with your dirty and twisted friends at the local Starbucks.*Originally i purchased the first edition which had some repeated doodles and a few other minor flaws, but James quickly solved my problem and added me to group on facebook! I couldn't be happier with my purchase! :D

I saw on facebook about this new thing with adult coloring books. I thought this one was a little more fun and exciting because it contained a bunch of dirty words and phrases. It is a lot of fun!! If you buy this the author has been awesome enough to supply freebies and new words on facebook and via email. The facebook group has other people with the same interests who share their creative works of art. I actually went out and bought markers and colored pencils to work on some of these. Great fun!!

I gave this as a gift. While I love the idea, some of the designs are awfully simple compared to the full page offerings of some of the other adult coloring books. All in all, though, this was a good value for a fun and cheeky gift.

First reaction this is great but honestly there's not many pages in this book, that's why I only gave it a 4 star rating. But! It's good quality and funny words, but considering the amount of swear words out there in the world, I feel that it could be a tad bigger of a book.

Got as a gift and she loooves it everyone keeps asking where she got it and wants one so funny some word combinations in even suprised me!

Love it, such a conversation starter! I would love some slightly softer verbiage or perhaps some UK slang like Bugger Off and Bollocks.

My friends all want one. So I told them where I got it. It seems like such a simple, silly thing, but coloring for adults has become more and more popular (taking cues from our inner child). I intend to take this to training classes and meetings in order to help focus my attention and not fall asleep.!

Great idea!
