"The Sacred Mirrors are a journey through our physical, socio-political, and spiritual anatomy." -

Alex Grey Arguably best known for his "X-ray" paintings, transcendental artist Alex Grey melds the anatomically correct with the visionary in the Sacred Mirrors Cards. The twenty-three cards in this boxed set are intended to lead viewers through the process of theosis. That is, we may draw closer to God by contemplating the iconic archetypes portrayed on the cards and by seeing others, the world and ourselves as reflections of the Divine. Intending to remind us of the pure wonder that can accompany our Earth journey, Grey says, "My life is committed to making artwork that wakes people up to the miracle of Life". From skeleton to viscera, nerves to auric fields, Spirit infuses the "mundane" mechanics of the body as surely as the magnificent emanation of love and community. At 8 1/2 x 4 1/2 inches, the Sacred Mirrors Cards are quite large, depicting colorful imagery on one side and poetic meditations on the other. For example, on the back of the card depicting the lymphatic system, Grey writes: "Lymph, holy water of life, Bathing every cell With nutritional healing plasma. Mysterious cleansing cousin Of the cardiovascular. Nodes that swell when inflamed, Pick up the pieces of the circulatory system. Take away and destroy invading predators. Purify, recycle and regenerate white blood cells, Lymphocytes, my defending militia. Immunize me. Keep me safely healthy and whole, My guardians of the realm. On a micro-level border patrol Thou are the decided of what is and is not me.
