The pages have a dotted line next to the binding for cutting the page from the book. 4. Some of the pictures have very tiny details, better for young eyes not a Grandmas mature eyes so if your Grandma as poor eye site this is not the book to purchase.

My Nannie has been coloring in children's coloring books for years. She has always been somewhat embarrassed about her love of coloring because of her age (74). I recently discovered the world of adult coloring books and spent a couple of hours browsing, trying to find a few to order for her birthday. When she opened her package, the look on her face was priceless when she realized what it was. It has now been a week, and her coloring books are all she talks about. She has not been able to put them down. I particularly loved this book, as did she. She keeps commenting on the high quality of the paper. I loved the look and feel of the color. One thing we both loved was the first page beyond the title page...a dedication page! I was able to make it out to her, and she LOVED that! What a special touch! On the back side of every coloring page is a quote. I read each of them, and was near tears at the end. Each quote spoke to my heart and either described my grandma or our relationship to a tee! She sat and read each quote too, immediately upon receiving the book. I was looking through her books today and noticed she had doodled and colored on the quote pages also! Another thing she loves is that one page can consume hours. Because of the great detail in each picture, she can spend hours choosing colors and coloring, which gives her a sense of accomplishment when she's done, because she feels like an artist, and SHE IS! The images are beautiful enough, that with her special touch of coloring, I look forward to framing some to hang in my house. One thing I discovered is when you have someone to shop for that needs or wants for nothing, this makes an absolute treasure of a gift. She is still on cloud 9, all because of a coloring book. I look forward to ordering more!

This coloring book is great. One piece of feedback - my kids gave this to my mom for mother's day and she loves it, but the scale is SMALL! I know that my mom would appreciate things being a bit bigger so she doesn't have to wear her "readers" to color. Same patterns, just blown up a bit would be a great alternative choice for those with aging eyes - even I would appreciate that! Thanks.

I got this for my daughter to give her grandmother for mother's day. I think she is going to love it! The pages are pretty to color, but on each opposite page is a quote about grandmother's. I think those quotes are going to be the hit of the book. I can't wait for Mother's day to get here so the baby can give this thoughtful gift. Any grandmother would love to get this book.

This was the perfect gift for my mom for mother's day as a new grandma. The book is beautiful and full of wonderful, uplifting quotes. It is an adult-level coloring book which my mom LOVES, using her colored pencils to provide shade variation and make them beautiful. As my son gets older, she will have her own book she can color in when he colors. Very original gift and she can't stop showing it off.

My mother-in-law (a very hip & artsy, yet sophisticated 50-something year old) absolutely loves this book! I purchased it for her for Mother's Day (she is now a grandma because of my new baby!) and she really enjoys coloring and drawing in it. She is an able artist, but enjoys having illustrations already made that she can just doodle or add colors to. Great idea!
